The Clarion District Conference of the M. E. church will be held at Falls Creek on Monday and Tuesday of next week, Oct. 29th and 30th.
The Oil City Fuel Supply company, which supplies the people of Reynoldsville with gas, has been drilling some new wells in its Millstone field.
Mrs. S. Phillip's house at Skyesville was burned down at noon last Friday. Origin of fire unknown, but it is supposed to have caught from a spark from an engine.
Repairing left at C. F. Hoffman's will be done by first-class workmen as he employs no apprentice workmen, but artists in their line. Everything guaranteed.
With a Democratic demonstration Monday night, a Republican rally last night, and a Prohibition meeting booked for Friday night, we can truthfully say, "the political pot boilteh."
Carroll Gottlieb, ten-month-old son of Gottlieb Bohren, the baker, died at 1:00 P. M. yesterday, and will be buried in the Catholic cemetery at 9:00 A. M. to-morrow. The little fellow peacefully slopped away.

The A. V. R'y gravel train crew was at work last week sloping the bank across the track from the station for the purpose of sodding it and giving the place a neater appearance.

Henry A. Reed, the shoe man, always handled good shoes. If you need anything in shoes, now is your chance, as he is selling all shoes at cost. All shoes must be sold before January 1st.

If your children complain of their eyes hurting them at school, don't compel them to study, but send them to C. F. Hoffman and have their eyes examined and see if they do not need glasses.

Robbers tried to gain an entrance into Will H. Bell's and W. S. Stone's residences during the church hour Sunday evening. Mr. Bell was at home and the sneak thieves were frightened away.

A four-year-old son of Amos Strouse died of diphtheria and was buried in the Paradise cemetery last week. The little fellow was a great attraction in the home circle and is now sadly missed.

About twenty-five members of the A. V. R'y P. O. S. of A. came to Reynoldsville Thursday evening and visited the order of the same name at this place. They were a real pleasant and social lot of genuine Patriotic Sons of America.

You can save your money and get 6 per cent. interest, if you invest in the German National Building and Loan Association. No entrance fee is required. It is the best Loan Association in existence. Inquire of Henry A. Reed, the shoe man, for particulars.

Burglars stole forty-five thousand dollars in notes and bonds one night last week from J. W. Klingensmith, who keeps a store near Cochran's Mills, Armstrong county. The notes, bonds and $100.00 in silver were locked in the safe. The thieves blew open the safe and carried off the papers and money.

"The Veteran Detective" a melodrama founded on an actual fact that some months ago created a sensation in the city of Buffalo, scored a hit last night at the Holiday street Theatre. The scenic effects of the play are unusually rich, a number of clever specialties are interpolated in the performance.—Baltimore Morning Herald. At the Reynolds opera house, Oct. 25th.

Lumbering in the vicinity of Brookville will soon be a thing of the past. The Record says: With one more summer's cut the lumbering establishments in the immediate vicinity of Brookville will have finished their work. For the past three or four years the lumber industry has been rapidly declining, and after next summer this village will have lost forever the direct benefits of an industry which has made it a prosperous centre for more than a generation.

If you want to save your money, invest it in the German National Building and Loan Association of Pittsburgh; it has advantages that no other association in the state gives. Inquire of Henry A. Reed, the shoe man, for particulars. Remember there is no entrance fee. It will pay you to consult Mr. Reed as he is thoroughly posted in Loan's and can show big inducements to the investor and borrower, and give printed matter fully explaining the workings of the Association.

Three-quarters of a dozen Reynoldsville gentry, done up in the latest tailor-made fashion, drove to Brookville Sunday. In the evening time one of the youths was escorting a Litchtown damsel home from church and when near the bridge the maiden swooned and the gallant beau jumped to the water's edge and scooped his hat full of water and dashed it into the damsel's face and thus resuscitated her. Then the twain proceeded homeward while big drops of cold water trickled from the soaked hat over the blonde locks and chased each other down the youth's spinal column.

The third annual convention of the Epworth League, Clarion District, of the Erie Conference, of the M. E. church, was held in the M. E. church at Brookville on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. There are fifty-five chapters in the district League and each chapter is entitled to five delegates. The convention was largely attended and each session was of great interest to the Leaguers who were present. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Rev. D. A. Platt, of New Bethlehem; secretary, Mrs. Minnie Robinson, of Sabula; treasurer, W. T. Sanson, of Clarion. The fourth annual convention will be held at Johnsonburg.

E. E. Stewart received quite a large shipment of marble and granite monuments, headstones, &c., the past week. Among the most prominent was a draped spire granite monument for J. L. and M. M. Moore, which has been set in their family lot in the Beechwoods cemetery; a plain gray granite shaft for Robert Bone, which has been placed in Beulah cemetery, where he intends to move the remains of his son from the new cemetery on Pleasant Avenue; also a very handsome monument to the memory of the late Charles Muth, of Paradise Settlement, which will be erected in the old Rider grave yard.

The latter is of round design, and something entirely new in this section of the country.

DEMOCRAT MEETING.

Centennial Hall Packed to Hear the Speakers.

Monday was the Democrat's day in Reynoldsville. A committee was sent to Dubois in the morning to meet the speakers and escort them to this place on the afternoon train. It was rumored that Wm. M. Singler, Democratic candidate for Governor, would pass through on the train on his way to Clarion and when the train arrived about one hundred and fifty men and women were at the station, including the Keystone band. Mr. Singler was not on the train, but Gov. Robt. E. Pattison was and he made a five minute speech from the car steps. Gov. Pattison, Secretary Harvitt, Adjutant-General Greenland, and several other prominent Democrats then proceeded on their way to Clarion.

The Keystone band went to the 6:57 P. M. train to meet Hon. Geo. A. Jenks and a few other Brookville Democrats who were escorted up town amidst the glare of red lights burned along the street.

When time to call the meeting to order in Centennial Hall, which was done by County Chairman Whitehill, the hall was taxed to its utmost to hold the crowd that wanted to attend the meeting. Wm. C. Schultze was elected president of the meeting with thirty-one vice-presidents, whose names we did not get. The secretaries elected were: P. A. Hardman, M. C. Coleman, Glenn Milliren, W. J. Weaver and W. F. Marshall. G. M. McDonald, Esq., introduced the speakers, the first of whom was District Attorney McCracken, who occupied the platform for 15 minutes. W. P. Fairman, candidate for Congress in the 21st district, spoke in his usual manner for ten minutes. Hon. David McKee, of Lancaster, candidate for Secretary of Internal Affairs, occupied the platform for 45 minutes. He was followed by Dwight M. Lowry, of Philadelphia, the best speaker of the evening, who talked for 40 minutes. Hon. Geo. A. Jenks was called but he refused to make a speech and Chairman Schultze declared the meeting adjourned.

The Democrats were well pleased with the meeting.

The interior of Centennial Hall was handsomely and neatly decorated with the stars and stripes.

Horse Shoe Bend.

While blowing about Falls Creek and its surroundings, what the reason mention is not made of the wonderful horse shoe bend on the B., R. & P. R'y within sight of that would-be-city? Not even the B., R. & P. R'y Co. in issuing the descriptive pamphlets of that road, ever hints of the bend, although much is said of Kinzua and other places along their line. Mr. Proctor, proprietor of the tannery at Falls Creek, in making his first trip over the B., R. & P., looked at his tannery as the train was leaving the village and after riding several miles he looked out of the car window and the train was running hard by another tannery and, in great surprise, Mr. Proctor asked who owned that large plant? He was somewhat relieved to be informed that was his plant. The gentleman did not know of the horse shoe bend. We are a little surprised that the enterprising B., R. & P. R'y Co. has not had the bend photographed long ere this.

"The Veteran Detective."

J. H. McAndrew's Melodrama "The Veteran Detective" is the drawing card at the Grand Opera House this week, opening at the matinee yesterday to a large sized audience. The many thrilling points in the play were conscientiously portrayed by an excellent company. The story of the Drama reveals unwonted persecution of the Heroine by her designing mother and sister who are at length foiled in their wicked plans by the heroic work of the "Veteran Detective" virtue and innocence as a matter of course eventually triumphing over the powers of evil.—Newark, N. J. Evening News. At the Reynolds opera house Oct. 25th.

Uncle Sam's Fault.

We would advise the drug stores at Reynoldsville to put in a supply of postal cards. The postoffice down there don't seem to have a very complete stock, for they were entirely out of postal cards this week.—Falls Creek Herald.

The postmaster ordered postal cards the first of the month and Uncle Sam was so slow, and the demand so great, that the postoffice was without postal cards a half day. The P. M. received thirty-five thousand stamps last Friday.

Wreck at Big Soldier.

Last Tuesday evening just as a trip of over fifty cars were coming out of the drift mouth at Big Soldier mine the drawhead of the grip car pulled out, and the grip car whizzed for a short distance and the loaded cars started back the heavy grade into the mine at a fast speed. About three-quarters of a mile in the train was wrecked and about thirty cars were badly demolished. Fortunately no one was injured.

Glenn Milliren is selling an all-wool underwear at $1.90 a suit that is actually worth $2.50.

See the fine display of watches in all sizes, from 0 to 18 size at Ed. Gooder's
Is your eye-sight failing? Call at Gooder's and let him fit you with a pair of glasses.

Prohib's Night.

Homer L. Castle, of Pittsburg, Prohibition candidate for Lieutenant Governor, will speak in Centennial Hall on Friday evening, Oct. 26th, on the Prohibition side of the question being discussed in the present campaign. Mr. Castle has the reputation of being a forcible and interesting talker.

Reynoldsville $800.00.

People may read of the "discretionary pool" crusade that is now going on in Pittsburg and think it does not interest any person in Reynoldsville or vicinity, but it does. About $800.00 has been sent to several of the Pittsburg syndicates from Reynoldsville. One hard working miner has about $300.00 in one of these "pools," and he may never get one cent of it back. Several times we have refused to run an advertisement at a good price for one of the Pittsburg "discretionary pool" syndicates.

Surprise Party.

Birthday surprise parties are not uncommon things in Reynoldsville, especially among the English people. The last pleasant gathering of this kind was at John Mitchell's last Thursday evening. Mr. Mitchell attended prayer-meeting in the M. E. church on the evening mentioned and then meandered home unaware of what was in store for him, for about thirty of his friends were awaiting his coming to give him a surprise, and they succeeded nicely. Refreshments were served and the friends gave Mr. Mitchell a handsome rocking chair as a birthday present.

Formerly of this Place.

Samuel Caldwell, a former citizen of this borough, is now a Republican candidate for sheriff of Mason county, Washington. Mr. Caldwell moved to the Pacific slope seven years ago. If elected sheriff he will make a good officer. He was constable of this borough four years, from 1882 to 1886, and Esq. E. Neff, who was Justice of the Peace at that time, says Mr. Caldwell discharged his duties faithfully and had lots of "sand," which, by the way, is one of the requisites for a good sheriff, especially in the western country. Mason county will not miss it by electing Mr. Caldwell to the office of sheriff.

Killed on the Rail.

Andrew Moody, of Beechtree, a coal miner 20 years of age, met with an accident on the B., R. & P. R'y at Grove Summit last Wednesday evening that cost him his life. He was stealing a ride from Dubois to his home and fell under the train and had one leg almost severed below the knee and the other one badly mangled. He was taken to his home and the doctors found it necessary to amputate both legs below the knees. The young man died at 10:00 A. M. Thursday. He was the only support of a widowed mother. When the tiple burned at No. 3 mine, Beechtree, on the night of the 30th ult., young Moody was thrown out of work. The deceased was a member of the K. G. E.

Fell Down Stairs.

Mrs. Ellen Walsh, mother of Patsy Walsh, the groceryman, fell down stairs Saturday morning and broke her right arm near the wrist and was also badly bruised. She is sixty-nine years old and would tip the scales at 180 pounds, therefore it is almost a miracle she did not meet sudden death. The old lady does not know how the accident happened. She had gone up stairs and put on her bonnet and shawl to go up town and in starting down stairs fell from the top to bottom. It is not known how long she remained unconscious at the bottom of the stairs. She managed to get to the kitchen door and attract the attention of her neighbors and got assistance.

More than Capacity.

The capacity of the West Reynoldsville tannery is 325 hides daily and it is now using 330 daily, five more than the intended capacity of the plant. The hides have so many processes to pass through that the new hides that were put in since the fire have never reached the finishing lofts yet. The men in that department have been working all this time on hides that were in the vats at the time of the fire. The hides will all be finished this week and then some of the loft men will go to Falls Creek tannery to work. The hides at that tannery are threatening to rot and the tannery will be run night and day until the hides are all worked out. This will make it lively at the Falls Creek tannery for a time.

Seventh Anniversary.

The seventh anniversary of the organization of the O. U. A. M. lodge in Reynoldsville was celebrated in the G. A. R. hall last Saturday evening. A large crowd was present and the evening was pleasantly whiled away. District Attorney McCracken and Lawyer G. M. McDonald made addresses, Noah Strouse and family furnished instrumental music and a quartette from the M. E. choir, D. M. Dunsmore, Wm. Ramsey, Louisa Koehler and Annie Northy, furnished vocal music for the "blow out." Large baskets well filled with good things to tickle the palates had been prepared and carried to the hall and at the proper time a raid was made on the baskets. Altogether it was a very pleasant anniversary.

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Music, Enthusiasm, Red Lights and a Big Crowd.

Republican enthusiasm stalked abroad on the streets of Reynoldsville last night amid the glare of red lights and music. It has been years, if ever, such a political demonstration was ever let loose in this town. Main street, from the A. V. R'y to H. J. Nickle's store was profusely decorated with flags, bunting and Chinese lanterns. Towards evening people began coming from the surrounding community and the evening train brought three hundred from Brookville and other stations west of here. The C. & M. train brought in about five hundred from Dubois and Falls Creek. These trains both arrived about the same time and the visitors, with Reynoldsville's contribution to the parade, formed in line and marched up Main street to Tenth, down Tenth to Jackson, down Jackson to Fifth, up Fifth to Main and down to opera house, headed with Burns' wagonette, followed by one hundred and fourteen men on horses. A martial band, Excelsior and another brass band from Dubois, the Brookville, Prescottville, Falls Creek and Keystone bands and a martial band from Hopkins furnished the instrumental enthusiasm for the occasion. Red lights were burned along Main street from the opera house to Arnold block during parade. An immense crowd stood on the walks and street to see the large parade go by.

As Centennial Hall was not large enough to hold those who wanted to hear the speakers, the opera house was also opened and those who went to either hall, and remained, heard all the speakers, as they would speak in one hall and then go to the other. The speakers present were: Hon. Wm. A. Stone, of Allegheny Co.; Hon. A. C. Robertson, of Pittsburg; Hon. John W. Reed, of Clarion; Hon. S. A. Craig and A. C. White, of Brookville.

Hon. J. W. Foust was elected president of the meeting in Centennial Hall, and A. M. Woodward presided at the opera house. Sixty-four vice-presidents were appointed for the two places. H. A. Reed and Sam'l Saxton were secretaries at Centennial, and L. M. Simmons and a stranger were secretaries at the opera house.

From early in the evening until the special trains left for Brookville and Dubois the music of bands, noise of horns, tin pans, cow bells and hurrahs of the crowd was almost deafening.

On To Pittsburg.

Two corps of Civil Engineers are now at work on the proposed extension of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg railroad. They are six or eight miles below Punxsutawney working along the Mahoning Creek, one corps is moving west and the other is coming this way. They went to work last week. W. F. Arms has charge of one of the corps and a number of Punxsutawney people are employed in helping make the survey. The route is being located as fast as the survey is made, which certainly means that the work of grading the road is to follow shortly. One man who claims to know something about it says that the work of grading will begin in about thirty days. Just where or through what sections of country the survey is to be made further west is not made public for some reasons best known to those having the work in charge, but the road, if built at all, will without question be built through sections of country the most benefit and advantageous to the road. Railroad men like all speculators when they invest their money want to put it where it will bring the quickest and best returns.—Punxsutawney News.

Over 11,000.

Over eleven thousand baskets of grapes have been sold in Reynoldsville this season, as follows: McEntire & Co., 1,350; Wm. Butchey 600; L. D. Trudgen 700; W. T. Cox & Son 1,500; Schultze & Son 600; Swartz Bros. 400; J. S. Morrow 200; Patsy Walsh 250; Wm. Burge 200; D. B. Stauffer 200; J. A. Welsh 1,500; G. Bohren 500; J. P. Dunn 1,500; Company store 1,500. We did not get the amount sold by M. J. Riggs, Wm. Copping, King & Co. and Walter Spry. These we will give next week. It was not a paying investment to handle grapes this year. When grapes were sold at 16 cents a basket the dealer made one-quarter of a cent per basket.

Just think of it, $1.00 and $1.50 for 12 Aristo Pictures! Having been unusually busy since our return to Reynoldsville, we have concluded to remain with you three weeks longer, closing Saturday evening, November 10th, 1894. We will make those beautiful enamel pictures for $1.00 and $1.50 per dozen. It is the chance of a life-time. Don't miss this opportunity. Come to-day, to-morrow we may be gone. As an extra inducement we are making life sized crayons, framed complete, and guaranteed for $3.50. Remember we show proofs and guarantee our work equal to any other. We do just as good work in cloudy weather as in bright. Houses photographed a specialty. Remember the place, Lenney's gallery, back of Centennial Hall, Reynoldsville, Pa.

At King & Co.'s you will find baled hay, salt, flour and a full line of general merchandise.
King & Co. and W. Spry sell six pounds of crackers for twenty-five cts.
